

Read The Curse of the Calcutta Diamond and answer the following questions in your Distance Learning Book. Remember to write in full sentences (the first three questions have examples of full sentences to finish).

Don't forget to send a copy of your work to your class teacher.

1. Who do you think is speaking in the first line? Why?
I think the person speaking in the first line is _____ because _____.
2. Where is the diamond?
The diamond is _____.
3. What was found in 1934?
_____ was found in 1934.
4. Who found the diamond? What was she doing?
5. How did Mrs Masood die?
6. Who was run over by a taxi?
7. Why did the diamond sparkle more when people took photos?
8. What simile is used to describe the children?
9. How does this make you imagine the children? How are they moving?
10. Who is Rachael Langley?
11. Who do you think Matthew is?
12. In your distance-learning book, write a newspaper report about the missing diamond.
Use the power point to help guide you.

