

Decades Discovery!

We thought it would be a nice idea to create a whole school Discovery project for the rest of the term. During this time, we would like you to work with your family to create a timeline of events, both personal and famous. We will give you two decades each week and there will be some independent tasks, but we would also like you to work with others in your family where possible.

The most important part is to share with your school community the work you have been doing, whether emailing it to your teachers or sharing on twitter @ChipsteadPri

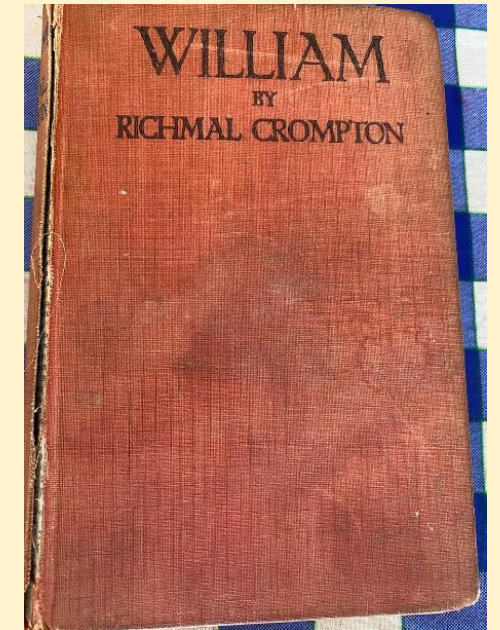

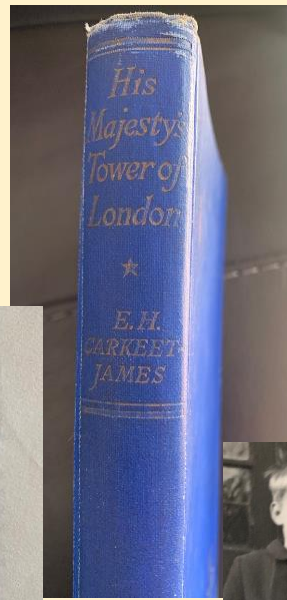

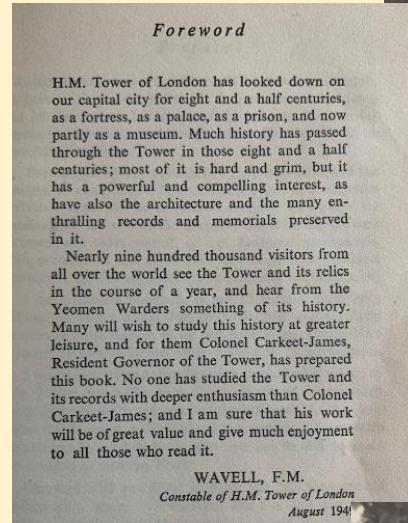

You could create a poster, a slide show or another imaginative way of sharing your learning. As we would love to make a whole school display.

Each week we will be adding to a scavenger hunt; see how many things you can find by the end of the term.

WOW Gallery.

These are some of our scavenger hunt photos from twitter, if you do not have twitter, don't forget to send them to your class teacher.

Here are some examples of the work that has come in to school, we would love to see lots more.

Dear family,

I am a bit worried about going into war. I will try my best to defend Britain.

Everyone here is truly kind and there're making me feel welcome. I am really missing you! Us Indians are quite different compared to the British. For example, they speak English and they eat food like: pies, potatoes and roast beef this is quite different from our food at home. I am quite scared because I am going to start my training in a few hours wish me luck! I am feeling very scared that I may get shot down and injured. I decided to help the British fight because of the horrible man Hitler. I really hope that we will win the world war because I do not want Hitler to win and I don't want all of my hard training to go to waist. Please don't worry for me I will be ok. Anyway I have to go now but I promise I will write to you every day.

How is the image of a kitchen different to your kitchen?

Our kitchen is bigger than this one and the colours are also different and the cabinets are fitted now not freestanding furniture and there was very little workspace. Also, we have tiled walls and better lighting, the kitchen doesn't have a fridge because they would have to use a cupboard under the stairs to keep their food cool.

What do you have that is the same but different?

The oven is quite different because we have an eye level electric oven and the old one is a range, and so is the sink it is ceramic and ours is stainless steel. With the kettle you have to put it over the stove to make tea and we have power sockets for our kettle. But the kitchen in the picture has the door going into a garden and so does our kitchen but our door is bigger and this is because that kitchen is pretty small. And in the corner, there is a sort of island and we have an island in our kitchen but the island in our kitchen is bigger. Both kitchens have storage space but the one in the picture has much less than the storage space than we have.

One day a long time ago in Mont gomery, Alabama a woman was arrested and locked in the slammer.
Do you think it was because she was having a good old natter?

No, no, no, people don't get put in to jail for chatter. It was because she didn't give up her seat to a white woman who didn't want to stand on her feet. Rosa was a black woman, you see, and in 1955 black people were not treated equally. Racism made black people's lives really hard, but Rosa decided that it was time to be seen! She organised protests across the nation until the government said that it was time to stop segregation. Rosa was awarded the medal of freedom for her bravery and got the small bottle she was

Do you know the name of this place, it opened in 1971?

So we have done the 1950s and 1960s.

Your next decades are the 1970s and 1980s.

We will give you some tasks to complete and ideas but we would really like to see other research that you have done.

Independent Activity Suggestions.

1. The 1970s saw the start of many children's TV shows, one of these that was popular at the start of the 70's, was Mr Benn. Can you watch an episode on YouTube and then have a go at writing your own story about a fancy dress outfit Mr Benn might be able to try on and the adventure he gets up to.

Here is our favourite;

New Zealand in the 1980s

Social

During the 1980s, the population rose to 3.4 million. Of this amount, 2.5 million lived in the North Island. The average family size included only 2 children. There was more migration from Asia, which meant that more New Zealanders were being exposed to a wider range of cuisine. The microwave oven came into the markets for the first time and cost the equivalent of $1500 nowadays.

Events

Goodbye Pork Pie came out in 1981.

In 1981, the first New Zealand Times was first published.

Te Karere screened for the first time.

The classic song Poi E featured in the charts for 22 weeks.

Schooling

In the 1980s, the school leaving age was raised from 15 to 16. Teachers and parents wanted more say in education and this changed the way that schools ran.

Interesting information

Prime Ministers: Robert Muldoon, David Lange and Geoffrey Palmer

Population: 3.4 million

2. Do you know who Margaret Thatcher was? Can you research her and the miners strike. Write a letter to Margaret Thatcher as if you are a miner, what would you like to say to her?

3. Here is a fact file for New Zealand, can you create one for any a different country, it could be England or it could be China, India or even Iceland.

Activity

Suggestions:

In 1970 the 10 shilling note ceased to be legal tender, do you know any other money we used to have, that we do not have today?

In 1989 Tim Berners-Lee invented the World Wide Web. Can you right a list of pros and cons for this invention?

Countdown started in the 80s, can you have a go playing any of the online games?

Can you draw any of the iconic children's characters from the 80s such as Gordon the Gopher, Ed the Duck etc.

There were lots of changes to the Royal Family within the 70s and 80s, can you produce a family tree starting with Prince William and Harry at the bottom.

Which country held the 1988 Summer Olympic games? What can you find out about this country?

Who are Tovill and Dean? What are they famous for?

Scavenger Hunt.
