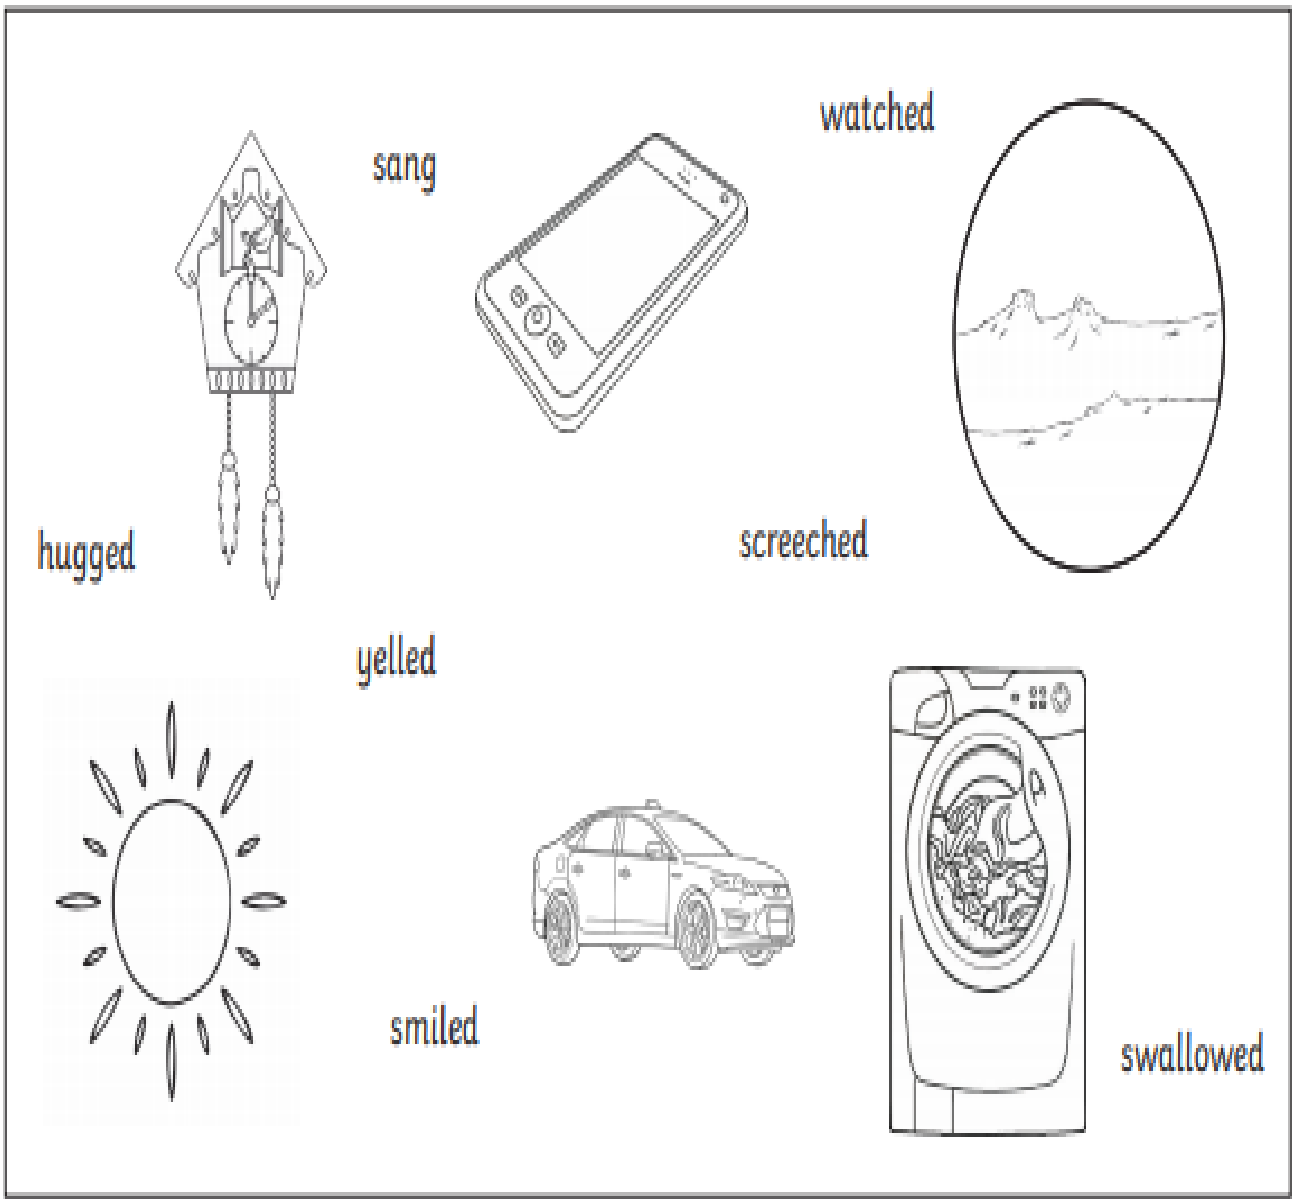
A Glimpse of the Morning

The rays of sun creep through the curtains. The birds chirp happily in the waving trees. My friendly blanket cuddles up over my gloomy feet. I can hear the rice crispies whispering and the toaster is jumping for joy. My clothes lie patiently waiting for their big day out while the smell of cooking breakfast sneaks up the stairs. My alarm starts to scream in my face and finally I drag myself out of bed. I trudge over the stubborn carpet. My clothes are uncooperative and they struggle over my head. Eventually I'm dressed and the stairs are running away to the kitchen where I can gulp down my toast and juice.

3. Use a picture and choose a verb to create your own sentence using personification to describe the object. Use the best verb to create the image that you want to put in the reader's mind.

For example:

The summer sun hugged the meadow.



4. Challenge

Choose your own objects and verbs and personify the object to create an image for the reader.

Please Print me.

DAY 3

Lesson 3

Home

On the next slide is an example of another personification poem.

Group A – Wednesday
Group B - Thursday

Kelly Roper– The Adventures of Timothy's Bike

Think of an inanimate object and bring it to life. Write your own Poem in your Home Learning booklet.

Here are some ideas that you could possibly use in your poem:

Coffee cup

Phone

Rubber

Paintbrush

Computer keyboard

Timothy's bike was a wonderful beast
Who liked to roll all day long.
Timothy clipped a card near the spokes
So they chattered out loud and strong.
One day Timothy was sick
And couldn't come out to play.
The bike was sad and a little bit mad,
So he decided to run away.
The bike pulled up his kickstand,
and quietly rolled across the lawn.
He hit the sidewalk and started to run,
And in a flash, he was gone.
He rode past the park, his favorite route,
Unaware he was watched by the throng.
The kids were astonished to see a bike
Rolling along with no rider on.
The kids began to chase the bike,
And so he sped quickly away.
He headed straight back to Timothy's house,
And put his kickstand down to stay.
The kids then knocked on Timothy's door,
To tell him how his bike had run away.
Tim looked at the bike still right where he'd left it,
And closed the door saying "No way."

DAY

Lesson 4

Home

Today we have a continued focus on Poetry.

First click the link below to hear the poem 'Nobody Knows' by Rachel Rooney.

Click here to here the poem

Group A – Thursday
Group B - Friday

Then, walk in your garden or in a park and look for things to bring to life using personification. Write a poem about your journey and the things you saw. Try to bring some of the things you saw to life using personification.

Visit Bug Club for additional grammar activities and books.
